

ODDITIES IN THE NEWS

Thirteen hunters and 2,300 deer were killed during the season just closed in Maine.

Santa Claus went to White Plains and was welcomed by the Mayor and school children, given the key to the city, made a speech and presented the kiddies to be back Christmas Eve.

In paying claims of men who followed the American flag during World War, the United States sends $7,162,415 yearly to 86 foreign countries, Italians and Irish leading in amounts.

The mail clerk who captured bandit Roy Gardner cannot get the $500 reward for conviction because Gardner has to serve a fifty-year sentence for other crimes before he can be tried.

The longest sentence ever imposed on a "gun toter" in this State has been completed in Sing Sing by John MacPherson, who got eight years and served five and a half years.

A pint bottle of whiskey that dropped in the hollow of a chestnut tree in Nepal, Conn., forty years ago has just been found by a man who cut down the tree.

Dallas, Tex., is feeding 20,000 school children for a few cents a day at a profit. Chicken stew costs only 5 cents.

KROELL TO MANAGE AMBASSADOR
Theodore Kroell, who was the first manager of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel here and who is one of the best known hotel men in Europe, has been appointed general manager of the Ambassador Hotel, Park Avenue and 51st Street. Mr. Kroell is on the George Washington, which is due tomorrow. For the past three years he has been managing director of the Stephanie at Baden-Baden.

Blyn Shoes Are Money Savers and Comfort Givers

You may not be able to tell a Blyn Shoe from another when it's new—almost all new shoes are good looking. Time tells! You'll find that when other shoes are begging to be tossed to the rag-bag, your Blyn Shoes are still ready for months more wear. That's because Blyn Shoes are built for service—made sturdily to wear long and stay stylish. Comfort—good looks—and long wear—meet in Blyn Shoes.

The price—everybody knows—is far lower than quality shoes are marked for elsewhere. We can afford to sell lower because we sell more shoes in our great chain of Blyn Shoe Stores than any other stores in New York. Begin With Blyn To-Day!
